Message:

My name is Helen Thomas and I am a resident of Sharon Springs, the director of the Sharon Springs Free Library and a Schoharie County elections worker. I hope the board will approve the citizen review board as proposed by Rural Awakening. I have just submitted a grant request to the American Library Association to discuss issues of race and racism through film and book studies. The Community Library in Cobleskill hopes to partner on this project. Our county needs to be an example of contemporary awareness for the rights of all people and a model of civilian-police interactions.
