

Bill Federice <federicebill@gmail.com>

Input re body cams

1 message

Pat Hults <hultsp@outlook.com>

Tue, Dec 8, 2020 at 8:45 AM

To: "bruce.baker@co.schoharie.ny.us" <bruce.baker@co.schoharie.ny.us>, "ronald.stevens@co.schoharie.ny.us" <ronald.stevens@co.schoharie.ny.us>, "federicebill@gmail.com" <federicebill@gmail.com>, "lapelspc@midtel.net" <lapelspc@midtel.net>
Cc: "windmill@midtel.net" <windmill@midtel.net>, Peter Harrison <kingdomnoyze@verizon.net>, "wcook001@luthersem.edu" <wcook001@luthersem.edu>, "theresa.heary@gmail.com" <theresa.heary@gmail.com>, "shelaria@gmail.com" <shelaria@gmail.com>, "montionea@gmail.com" <montionea@gmail.com>

The Rural Awakening's only comment on the current body cam policy is a need for a statement specifying that recordings are available to the public and on a timely basis. Also, there should be disciplinary action should an officer ignore body cam policy, particularly not recording when they should be.

We have comments on the new Use of Force policy presented last week, that will be coming shortly.

Thanks and stay safe. - Pat

Patricia Hults